A Letter to my Dad...

Being a lovely, kind and powerful hero can be a good explanation for my dad. He is logical and loyal. In critical situations he makes me calm. He likes to see my success and helps me to reach my goals. He never shows tiredness, sadness or...and just always have adorable smile on his lips. He reads poems for me and I enjoy it. He encourages me in dreaded times. I can never give back his kindness, his efforts, his smile and helps.

“A letter to your dad”

I love my dad.

My dad is the kindest person that I have seen in all my life.

He works from morning to night.

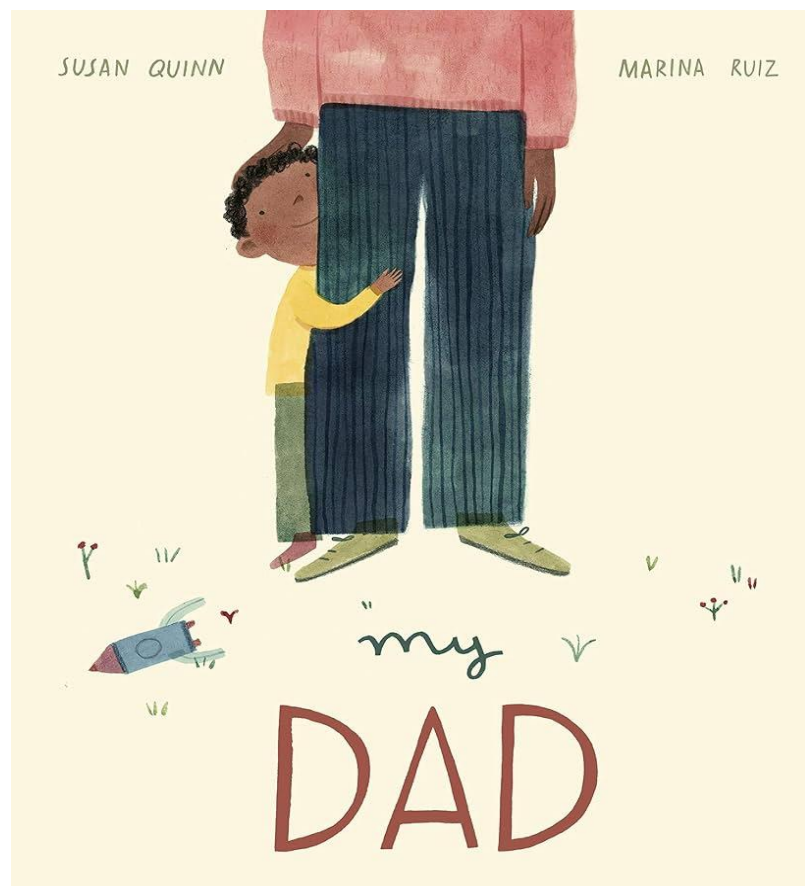

He works hard but he behaves very friendly with me. He helps me in math and science

If I have any mistake, he'll never blames me.

He buys everything for me but forgets himself.

I pray to God about my dad every days and nights.

Hello

Being father is very hard. It is full of stress and anxiety .

But it is one of the best feelings in the world. I hope that all fathers all over the world be healthy. My dear dad, I know that you work a lot for us. I am really happy that you are my dad . I proud on you . I really want to thank for all the things that you do for us. I want to promise you to do my best to make you be proud on me too.

Zeinab Mizban

My Dad, My Hero

Dear Dad,
I don't say it enough, but I just wanted to write you this. I love you. You've always been there even when I didn't want you to be. You listened when I was angry, when I was sad, when I didn't want to talk. You didn't push me, but you were always close. You made my favourite meals, even when you were tired. You drove me to school, to practice, to my friends' houses. You didn't complain. You just did it.
I know you're busy, and I know you have a lot on your plate. But when you're with me, it feels like nothing else matters.
Thank you for being my dad.
Love you,
Your daughter

Reyhane Golroniya

My dear dad
I want to write a letter because it's hard to say some words (or confabulation) as writing is easier than saying that face to face. I want you to know I fond you and I feel you are my refuge, even when I become to a crabby girl.
Perhaps I usually can't show my interest but I'm aware of all your efforts.
Your presence gives me
always safe feeling

Fatemeh Asemi

In the name of God

My dear dad
In my life, you were very impressive . You were the most powerful.
I always trust you . You are my hero and I'm glad to have a father
like you.
I hope you be successful in life. I hope the whole world's dad will hold out your hands . I'm proud of you.
From someone who loves a lot

Hello dad. I have to tell you a series of things and I know that no matter how much I say it is not enough. Dad, I owe you for the rest of my life.

The Best Movie I watched recently...

Today I want to talk about the best movie I've watched.

I'm a person who love the movie and I watch them always, actually I watch them on my free time.

But the best movie for me is joker it is really beautiful and successful to the festival!

I prefer to watch some movies like this.

Hop you enjoy to watch this!

Zahra Razmi

Since the Internet connection has some problems, I've tried to do some things that I normally don't. For example, I don't watch movies usually because I get bored while I'm watching a movie or a series but this week, I tried to watch something because I didn't have anything interesting to do, so I asked for some entertaining movies names from my best friend who is always watching something and she introduced a movie to me that I thought it might sound good so I just trusted her and played the movie.

Fortunately, it was a really nice movie to watch! It is called Stepmom;. And I really liked it because it was aligned with my taste. It was about a teenage girl who had some problems with her stepmom, she couldn't accept her but her stepmom was trying her best to be the mom that she wanted. It was both funny and drama at the same time. Anyways, if you're looking for a nice movie to watch with your family or friends, I offer this one to you.

"The best movie I've seen recently is Shahrzad. It was absolutely beautiful! It was made quite a few years ago, around 2011. Even though it's a bit old, I really enjoyed it. Shahrzad, the main character of the series, is what really drew me in! Her catchphrases and the necklace she wore even became trendy back then. Lastly, I highly recommend you watch it!

Best movie I have ever watched recently was interstellar . This movie was about space and stars . Because I like some topic which about space , this movie was interesting for me . Everyone encouraged him but he was too upset. Finally, his father buy him new shoes

The people live with movies and series !
Even a short series can change their life at all.
I want to talk about a Korean series I've .watched recently named Dear X
I liked watch it because of its actors and actresses more but while watch it I've interested in its story too.

That was about a girl that had bad targets but

She had cruel personality: she killed her father for his bothers and abuse a famous actor after she became an actress (she was really glamorous)cruelly!, but considering all of them
she affect on me by her act.

In the end in an accident with her half brother who live with him from childhood and love her
,she stay alive hardly and didn't save him
surprisingly!

I hope it has second chapter 😞

I apply you to watch it to enjoy like me 😊

Thanks

Eid Milad-un-Nabi

Hazrat Muhammad's Birth Anniversary

The birth anniversary of Hazrat Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him), also known as Eid Milad-un-Nabi, is a special day for Muslims around the world. He was born in Makkah in the month of Rabi-ul-Awwal, and his life became a guiding light for humanity. As the last Prophet of Islam, his teachings focused on peace, kindness, honesty, and the worship of one God.

On this day, Muslims remember his noble character and reflect on his message. People offer prayers, recite the Qur'an, and send blessings upon him. It is a time to renew our commitment to living with compassion, truth, and good morals, just as the Prophet (PBUH) taught us.

School News

The science run was held at the Royan Research Center with the aim of enhancing deep learning, providing practical familiarity with biological sciences, and creating connections between course concepts and the real world of research; a different and inspiring experience of learning in a real science environment.

During this visit, students learned about the scientific and ethical steps of dissection, while learning about research environments and laboratory animals, and then performed a mouse dissection in groups. These activities were designed to increase accuracy, teamwork, scientific observation, and responsibility in laboratory work.

At the end of this scientific camp, the students received an international certificate of participation in the workshop; a valuable memento of a day full of learning, experience, accuracy, and discovery of scientific talents, which is an effective step on the path to conscious academic guidance and cultivating their research-oriented outlook.

Whenever it comes to routines ,some of the people are completely aware of the activities they're planning to do , they know exactly when to start their work and when to call it a day. But I've never dealt with anything related to plans , in another word , I've never been good at sticking to a clear routine . I just decide what to do at the moment and living this way has never bothered me one bit. In my point of view, it makes my life more exciting and yet , I definitely am able to make the most of my life.

I consider myself as a person with a Perceiving characteristic and I experience new activities every single day and I'm proud of myself even though I don't have a clear daily routine.
